NCAA Tournament Success

With 10 appearances in school history, the University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament. Since 1998, the Utes have become a fixture in the tournament and have developed a rich history of success in that short span.

"Every year we play a nationally-competitive schedule to prepare for the NCAA Tournament," head coach Beth Launiere says. "Our goal is to continue to go to the NCAA Tournament year-in and year-out."

The team has participated in the NCAA Tournament 10 times (1998-2006, 2008) and advanced to the second round eight times. The 2001 and 2008 teams both went 2-1 in the tournament, concluding each season with a loss in the Sweet 16. The Utes lost to eventual national champion Stanford to conclude the 2001 campaign, while the 2008 team saw its season come to a close at No. 5 Washington.

The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

The team's regional semifinal appearance in 2001 was the first time in Utah volleyball history that a team had advanced to regionals. The Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds on Crimson Court. Utah fell to host Stanford, 3-1, in Palo Alto in the regional.

In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in 2003 in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-set victory. The following night, the Utes fell in three sets to host Washington.

Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005 after winning the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid.

All-Americans

Kim Turner (2000-03) • Third Team (2003)

A 6-2 middle blocker, Turner was among the top players in the country in 2003. She ranked 18th in the nation in blocks per set (1.48) and 31st in hitting percentage (.367). Turner's senior year ended with Co-MWC Player of the Year honors for the second year in a row as she led the MWC in hitting percentage (.434) and points per set (5.61). During conference play, she had 231 kills, which set the league's single-season record. Turner ended her four years ranked first in the Utah career record books in kills (1,620), total blocks (670), block assists (589) and is now second in hitting percentage (.324).

Lyndsey Henderson (2002-04) • Honorable Mention (2004)

Henderson averaged 1.67 blocks per game which ranked second in the conference and eighth nationally. Offensively, she racked up 3.59 kills per game and hit .322 for the season, checking in at third and fifth in the MWC, respectively. The 6-5 middle blocker established herself as one of the team's go-to threats, bagging double-digit kills in 25 of the 30 matches this season. Among that string is a career-best 22 kills in leading Utah to an upset victory over then-No. 6 UCLA. Her list of accolades also included AVCA all-region honors, all-MWC and MWC Player of the Week (Oct. 18).

Shelly Sommerfeldt (2002-05) • Honorable Mention (2005)

Sommerfeldt wrapped up her 2005 campaign by winning her third all-conference award and began the postseason winning all-MWC Tournament and Tournament MVP accolades. She ranked sixth in the MWC in racking up 3.54 kills per game and hit .229 for the year and was 10th in the league in averaging 2.89 digs in addition to 0.92 blocks.

Airial Salvo (2005-06) • Second Team (2006)

Salvo, a 6-0 outside hitter, was named the MWC Player of the Year in 2006, averaging 4.13 kills, 3.35 digs, 0.78 blocks and 0.45 aces per set. She led the Utes and the MWC with 49 aces on the year. Salvo completed her Utah career with 3.73 kills, 0.34 aces, 2.90 kills and 0.83 blocks per set and also had a hitting percentage of .269.

Whitney Webb (2004-07) • Third Team (2006)

Webb had a breakout season as a junior in 2006 for the Utes, averaging 3.13 kills, 2.67 digs and 1.29 blocks per set. She ranked 63rd in the nation in hitting percentage, and led all MWC outside hitters with a .344 hitting percentage. Webb was a significant factor in helping Utah lead the nation in blocks (3.71 per set) while ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.323). In addition to All-America honors, Webb was also an All-West Region and all-conference selection in 2006. She finished her career with 2.77 kills and 0.99 blocks per set.

Lori Baird (2005-08) • Third Team (2008)

Baird was recognized as an AVCA All-West Region selection as well as the MWC Co-Player of the Year. Baird finished the season second in the MWC and 16th in the country with 1.39 blocks per set. She became the 10th member of Utah's 1,000-kill club and finished her career with the Utes seventh in school history with 1,236 career kills. Baird led the team with 3.05 kills per set, which finished fourth in the MWC. Baird finished her career second in school history with 584 career block assists and third with 631 career total blocks. Baird posted seven career double-doubles, three in 2008, including a school-record 16 block assists to go along with 11 digs in a 3-0 win at BYU.

Emillie Toone (2004-08) • Honorable Mention (2006, 2008)

Toone earned AVCA Honorable Mention recognition for the second time in her career after ending her career as the most efficient attacker in school history (.345). Toone led the MWC and was 12th in the nation with a school-record .393 hitting percentage, breaking her own record of .369 (set in 2006). She also tied or led Utah in kills six times during 2008. On the block, Toone finished her Ute career second in school history in total blocks (635) and third in block assists (583). Toone finished 2008 third in the conference and 19th nationally with 1.37 blocks per set, while leading or tying for the team lead in blocking during 13 matches this season.

Utah Volleyball Facilities

Huntsman Center

Regarded as one of the top college arenas in the nation since opening its doors in 1969, the Jon M. Huntsman Center has provided an imposing home venue advantage for Utah's basketball and gymnastics teams. And starting this fall, it becomes home for the Ute volleyball team.

The Utah volleyball team opened its Pac-12 home schedule against No. 6 Stanford in the Huntsman Center last season on Sept. 20, 2012.

The Utes held the statistical advantage over the Cardinal in hitting, team blocks and service aces, but fell in a four-set decision in front of 2,218 fans in the first volleyball match in the Huntsman Center since hosting BYU on Oct. 1, 1993.

For a structure that in its 43rd year of existence, a feeling of newness still pervades underneath the silver dome. But don't let the pristine picture fool you. As serene as the Huntsman Center may look empty, when the Utes are on the floor and fans are in the stands, the place transforms into a madhouse.

A landmark on the U. campus, the Jon M. Huntsman Center is the perfect place to watch a sporting event. With 15,000 chair seats assuring a great view from anywhere in the arena, the Huntsman Center is the largest venue in the Pac-12 Conference.

From its perch at the southeast end of campus, the Huntsman Center stands sentinel over the University of Utah. Inside the facility are athletic coaches' and administrative offices and locker rooms. The enormous reflective silver dome is the largest of its kind in the world. Underground tunnels stretching 2,220 feet connect the arena with the four-building physical education complex.

The famous "steel cloud," a huge mass of steel and concrete, hangs from the dome's interior and holds the scoreboard, and the public address and lighting systems. The building was engineered in such a way that the cloud actually holds the dome in place.

Prior to the 2011-12 season, the entire Huntsman Center playing floor was replaced. A new, $1.3 million scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2007. The new scoreboard features an LED ring by Optotech around the bottom and four LCD video screens, which provide brighter, clearer pictures than ever before seen in the Huntsman Center. The scoreboard also features a player stat board and is 1.5 times bigger than its predecessor.

Crimson Court

Utah's Crimson Court is one of the finest volleyball-only practice facilities in the nation.

Used as one of the most intimidating competition venues in the country from 2000 through 2012, Utah racked up a 130-35 (.788) home record and has tallied a 75-19 (.798) mark in conference home matches during that span. Overall from 1994 through 2014, the Utes went 189-64 (.747) at Crimson Court with a 113-36 (.758) mark against league foes

The court was built prior ot the 1994 season and officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened with a win over Montana State and a marathon five-set victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic. A new playing surface was installed during the summer of 2011.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,747 fans watched Utah rally from down two sets to defeat BYU. The near-capacity crowd also was treated to a 35th Anniversary celebration and Alumni Reunion.

Utah set the single-season attendance record in 2001. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 matches, averaging 801 fans per contest.

Crimson Court was a launching pad for the Utes' 10 NCAA Tournament appearances and also played host to the NCAA Tournament, entertaining opening-round action in 2001 and 2005.

With New Home in the Huntsman Center, Utes Look to Move Into Pac-12 Elite

Optimism running high for Utes as they move into their new home.

With its new permanent home now set up in the Jon M. Huntsman Center, the University of Utah volleyball team is now looking to make another move into to the top tier of the Pac-12 Conference.

"Just from a pure fan standpoint, it's wonderful," Utah Head Coach Beth Launiere said. "We'll have a nice venue for us to play in. The fans are going to enjoy it. We have access to a lot more technology with the video board and that kind of stuff, which is going to enhance the experience for our fans. Our Marketing Department is going to be able to take things to another level. Recruits are going to be very excited about playing in this historic and beautiful facility and most importantly, our players are very excited about the move."

The Utes welcome back six starters who have combined to start 352 matches for Utah over their respective careers heading into the program's third year in the Pac-12.

"From a competitive standpoint, it's excellent because we play in big arenas in the Pac-12 and, as much as we love Crimson Court and the home-court advantage we had there, sometimes it was difficult for us to go on the road and play in bigger arenas. It's just different playing in a big arena. It's going to help us play more consistently on the road. Our student-athletes are excited about it. They deserve it. It's a great step up for our program." Each year, Utah continues to feel more comfortable among its peers in the premier volleyball conference in the country.

"It's completely different heading into this year," Launiere said. "Our two seniors have two years under their belt in the Pac-12 and everyone else doesn't know anything different than Pac-12 play. Most of our players are comfortable in this conference. We've learned a lot and now we're a more experienced team. We're ready to hopefully make a move into the upper half of the conference."

The Utes' jump to the Pac-12 has altered their recruiting strategy and a product of their new practices is a talented group of four incoming freshmen who will join the Ute roster this season and look to produce results right away.

"Our standards as well as the way we look at recruits have changed," Launiere said. "The way we think about getting recruits has changed. Everything has changed and it's now the norm." Despite finishing in ninth place in the Pac-12 for the second consecutive season in 2012, Utah took away many positives from its experience on the court last season against the nation's best teams.

"I'm definitely a 'glass half full' coach," Launiere said. "There were so many good things to come from last season. We had five, five-set losses in the Pac-12 and very few 3-0 losses. We have to take steps and we took a huge step from the first year to the second year by getting in those five-set matches and being competitive in almost every match we played. That wasn't the case in the first year. That was a huge step for us last year."

Outside Hitters

Veteran starters, senior Morgan Odale and junior Chelsey Schofield, pack a punch from Utah's outside hitter position with 1,729 career kills between the pair. Odale was second in Pac-12 and 92nd in the NCAA with 0.33 service aces per set. She was also third in league with 0.33 service aces per set during Pac-12 matches. Schofield led team with 3.19 kills (218th in NCAA) and 3.66 points per set and also averaged 2.39 digs per set.

"Morgan and Chelsey both played on the USA A2 Team this summer and both have a pretty significant amount of experience now," Launiere said. "They've both been in a lot of battles, a senior and a junior who have started their entire respective careers."

A wild card in the equation may be found in junior Makenzie Moea'i, an American Fork, Utah native who is transferring to the Utes after playing two seasons at UNLV. In two seasons with the Rebels, she notched five or more kills in a match 44 times and hit double figures on 23 occasions. She pounded down 494 career kills at UNLV and led all Rebel attackers in 2011 with 330 kills for a team-best 2.92 kills per set.

"Moea'i is going to compete with them and she brings a whole different set of factors to the lineup," Launiere said. "Makenzie has a special ability to get kills so whether she's coming off the bench or not or starting, she can get kills for us. The combination of the three on the left-side is the strongest combination that we've ever had in this program. We are going to need all three to be a top-tier team in the Pac-12."

Freshman Jaydra Thurber is a product of Temecula, Calif., who was a second-team all-league selection at Chaparral High School in 2012.

"Just like most freshmen, Jaydra will need to adjust to the college game," Launiere said. "She's a big, 6-1 kid who has been playing outside hitter on a great club team. She'll give us some nice depth there."

Right-Side HItters

The 6-2 system employed by Utah over recent memory has allowed Ute right-side hitters to display their versatility in all aspects of the game.

"We never go into a season knowing which system we'll be in, whether it's a 5-1 or a 6-2, but we've been in a 6-2 fairly consistently over the last few years so I do anticipate that again," Launiere said. "Alli Spurrier and Shelby Dalton proved to be up to the task last year and we will look to them to contribute even more this season."

Dalton was selected to the Pac-12 All-Star Team that toured China last summer and led all Pac-12 right-side hitters last season with 1.14 blocks per set in league play (10th overall) and 1.06 blocks per set overall. The Moab, Utah native averaged 1.78 kills per set with a .254 hitting percentage in 2013.

"We know about Shelby's ability to block," Launiere said. "She was the top right-side blocker in the conference last year and she shut down our opponents' big left-side hitters in the Pac-12. She has also proven her ability to get kills as she was a go-to player offensively on the Pac-12 All-Star Team this summer in China."

Spurrier was selected to the Pac-12 All-Academic First Team in 2012 and saved her best for last after averaging 1.49 kills per set with a .295 hitting percentage in Utah's last 10 contests.

"Alli quietly put together a very good season offensively," Launiere said. "She put up a great hitting percentage for us. Her blocking has improved. We worked on that with her a lot during the offseason.

"I love our right-side combination. They're strong. They're good blockers and having two big, right-side hitters creates a lot of problems for opposing teams. We have a lot of experience now so we're going to pose a lot of problems for our opponents because we have a lot of hitters with a lot of experience."

Middle Blockers

Five Utes will be at the center of the Utah lineup in the middle blocker position this fall to lead a unit that helped Utah place sixth in the NCAA and second in the Pac-12 blocking (3.00/set) in 2013. Led by senior, All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention selection Erin Redd-Brandon and junior Bailey Bateman, the Utes were also second in the league 2.94 blocks per set in league play.

"Last year, we were low on depth in the middle and so we worked at bringing in additional players in there," Launiere said. "Obviously, Bailey and Erin are both proven middle blockers in this conference."

As a sophomore last season, Bateman was Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII Second Team selection and received Pac-12 All-Academic Honorable Mention recognition. The Hooper, Utah native ranked ninth in the NCAA, second in the Pac-12 with 1.54 blocks per set and second in the Pac-12 with 1.52 blocks per set in league play.

"Bailey put up some big blocking numbers and Erin is an offensive go-to player for us," Launiere said. "Again, we have a couple of proven commodities who are a junior and a senior and are ready to go."

Sophomore Eden Frazier along with freshmen Carly Trueman and Alyssa Koenig will be counted on to provide depth throughout the season.

"Eden has a good year under her belt and improved a lot during the spring," Launiere said. "She has a good mentality and is a good competitor.

"Trueman is coming in straight off the Junior A1 Team. She's as good of an athlete as anyone we've ever had in this program. She's a phenomenal athlete, who could play in some different positions. We're not sure where we're going to play her yet, but she's one of those athletes who were excited to have in the gym.

Alyssa brings good size and length to the position. Obviously, freshmen have to adjust to the Pac-12 and college level, but we have as much depth in that position as we've had in a long time. We're excited about what Alyssa can bring to the middle blocker position."

Setter

Utah's lone returning setter Kendall Cygan led team with 5.73 assists per set in league matches. In her 23 starts in 2012, Cygan averaged 5.99 assists, 1.54 digs and 0.16 service aces per set. The Orange, Calif., native surpassed 30 assists four times and also had 15 matches of 20 assists or more.

"Kendall came in last year and proved she can play at this level, physically and mentally," Launiere said. "She's a hard-nosed competitor. For her to walk in as a freshman and do what she did last year and be able to handle it says a lot. She's ready to go. She improved a lot technically this spring. Physically and mentally, she's tough."

Junior Kalee Kirby arrives on the Utah campus from Northern Arizona after being named the 2012 Big Sky Conference All-Tournament Team. In the two matches, Kirby handed out 84 assists (12.00 assists per set) and 21 digs (3.00 digs per set) while adding three blocks, a service ace, and five kills on a .455 hitting percentage.

"We're fortunate enough to have Kirby coming in," Launiere said. "She was a two-year starter at Northern Arizona. They won 24 matches last year. Kalee has two years of collegiate setting experience under her belt and she knows how to win. She also played club ball with Bateman and Spurrier. She's from Utah. She'll fit in well and be very comfortable. She's another kid who is a hard-nosed competitor and I like the combination of Cygan and Kirby a lot."

Libero/Defensive Specialist

Junior Lea Adolph will patrol the Ute back row after averaging 2.42 digs and 0.15 service aces per set in 2013. The Waltrop, Germany native had 14 matches of 10 digs or more last season.

Freshman Tess Sutton will provide depth in a backup role behind Adolph. The Bonsall, Calif., native was ranked third in digs among prep athletes in the San Diego area in 2012.

"Lea made more strides this spring than she has throughout her career," Launiere said. "She really took some big steps. She's a proven passer at this level and she improved her defense considerably. Tess comes in after having played with one of the top club teams in the country. She's very experienced at the junior level. She's a very strong competitor and mentally tough."

Schedule

Eighteen of Utah's 32 regular-season matches will be against 10 teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament last season, including reigning national finalist Oregon. The Utes will play six matches against three teams who advanced to the Elite Eight last season (Oregon (twice), USC (twice) and Stanford (twice)) and nine matches against six schools from the 2012 Sweet Sixteen (Oregon (twice), BYU, Washington (twice), USC (twice), and Stanford (twice)).

The Utes' non-conference campaign begins with the annual Utah Classic Aug. 30-31 in the Huntsman Center with matches against Utah State (Aug. 30) before taking on 2012 NCAA Tournament qualifiers Fairfield (Aug. 31) and Northern Iowa (Aug. 31).

"(The non-conference season) is strong enough," Launiere said. "We feel like we're going to be a pretty good team this year so we felt like we needed to have some pre-conference competition that was going to allow us to hopefully get us some significant wins, while preparing us for the Pac-12.

"There is definitely a fair share of matches that we feel like we need to win, there's a share of matches (probably two or three) that will be big wins if we can get them. It's a really good schedule for us to have a good RPI going into the conference schedule. There's a balance between strength of schedule and hopefully enough wins."

Utah's televised home conference matches will include the `Rumble in the Rockies' match against Colorado (Sept. 24), USC (Sept. 29), Arizona State (Oct. 24), Arizona (Oct. 27), California (Nov. 7) and Stanford (Nov. 10).

Seven of Utah's road matches will also be on live TV, beginning Oct. 11 at Stanford. The Utes' other televised road matches include California (Oct. 13), Oregon State (Oct. 18), Oregon (Oct. 20), Arizona (Nov. 14), Arizona State (Nov. 17) and the return match in the `Rumble in the Rockies' series at Colorado (Nov. 27).

"Being in the top-half of the Pac-12 means that you're in the top 25 in the country," Launiere said. "The next step for us is to get into the NCAA Tournament and be one of the top-half teams in the Pac-12."

Beth Launiere
Head Coach
23rd Season
450-277, .619

Reinvigorated by a permanent move into the Jon M. Huntsman Center for all home matches, Utah head coach Beth Launiere and the University of Utah volleyball team now have their sights set on moving up the ranks during their third season in the Pac-12 Conference.

Launiere (450-277, .619) is beginning her 24th year at the helm of the Utah volleyball program after taking over in 1990, when she looked to straighten out a team that won only one match in 1989. In her 24th year, Launiere has sculpted the Utes into a top-25 power. The Utes have qualified for the NCAA Tournament 10 times, won six Mountain West Conference titles (regular season and tournament combined) and have recorded 13, 20-win seasons.

Launiere has earned plenty of recognition as the leader of the Utes, she was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year three times (2001, `06, `08) and the MWC Coach of the Year (2004, `06, `08) of the Year three times.

Launiere's ability to attract top-notch talent has helped take Utah to the forefront of the national scene. She has guided seven Utes to All-America honors while 11 have garnered all-region accolades. The 2011 freshman class was ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com, while the 2005 freshman class was ranked the eighth-best by Volleyball Magazine.

Launiere's accomplishments earned her the opportunity to serve as an assistant coach for the Pac-12 All-Stars in June of 2013, where she toured China with 13 of the Pac-12 best volleyball players, including current Ute right-side hitter Shelby Dalton.

Launiere also coached for USA Volleyball during each summer from 2009 through 2011. She coached the USA/BIP Team at the 2011 European Global Challenge in Belgrade, Serbia and Pula, Croatia last July and was head coach of the USA National A2 Program in May of 2010 at the Open Division of the USA Open National Championships in Phoenix, Ariz. Launiere was also on the sidelines as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Li Miao, Chinese Taipei and Bangkok, Thailand.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. She has guided volleyball on the national stage as the AVCA President during the 2009 calendar year and as the President-Elect in 2008. She has also been a member of the AVCA Board of Directors since 2004 and served a three-year term as the Division I Volleyball Coaches Representative from 2005 to 2007 after being a part of the AVCA's All-America Committee for five years.

On the court, Launiere has helped Utah volleyball reached new heights on both the conference and national levels. In 11 years of MWC play, Utah won three tournament championships (2001, `02, `05) and three regular-season titles (2004, `06, `08), while qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 10 times.

The Utes have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament eight times with regional semifinal appearances in 2001 and 2008. In 2001, Utah fell to eventual national champion Stanford, 3-1. Utah was the only team to win a game against the Cardinal during the tournament. In 2008, the Utes swept Furman and host Clemson in the first two rounds before being defeated by Washington in Seattle.

The 2008 team went 26-6 overall and won their sixth overall MWC title in school history after starting the MWC season 0-2. Utah went on to take 14 consecutive conference victories against conference foes. Lori Baird was the MWC Player of the Year, while Launiere earned the third MWC Coach of the Year honor of her career.

In 2006, Utah set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18th AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) in 1992, just her third year.

Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes led the nation in blocks that year, while Mikki Kane-Barton was the top individual blocker in the country. It was the first time any Western Athletic Conference team earned the nation's top rank in blocking.

In addition to seven AVCA All-Americans, Erin Redd-Brandon was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2012 and Chelsey Schofield earned Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention recognition in 2011. Seventeen of Launiere's players earned 21 different All-MWC honors and 11 have been named all-region. Kim Turner (2002-03), Airial Salvo (2006) and Lori Baird (2008) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency.

Before Shelby Dalton played with the Pac-12 All-Stars in China last summer, many of her players have represented Utah internationally in various US Olympic Development programs. Several players have gone on to compete in the USA Volleyball system, including current players Dalton, Schofield, Morgan Odale, along with Turner, Salvo, Toone, Baird, Sydney Anderson, Lyndsey Henderson, Danielle Killpack, Abby Simmons and Kelsie Kartchner. Danielle Leichliter trained overseas with Vanajan RC.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). The Illini went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids, including an appearance in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

Brian Doyon
Assistant Coach
Fifth Season

Brian Doyon will be in his fifth season as a member of the Utah volleyball coaching staff. Serving as Utah's recruiting coordinator and working with the Ute blockers, Doyon brings a vast amount of experience in many different aspects of the game and has helped Utah maintain its position as one of the top programs in the Pac-12 Conference and the nation.

While instructing Utah's blockers, Doyon guided the Utes to two of the most successful years on the block in recent memory in 2011 and 2012.

The Utes finished sixth in the NCAA and second in the Pac-12's latest statistical rankings with a 3.00 block-per-set average as a team. Including league-games only, Utah improved to second in the league with 2.94 blocks per set during Pac-12 matches, while Bailey Bateman finished ninth in the country and second in the Pac-12 with 1.53 blocks per set in 2012.

In 2011, Utah was fifth in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12 with 3.00 blocks per set and turned in 2.90 blocks per set in league competition. Doyon mentored current middle blocker Erin Redd-Brandon to a 16th-place finish in the NCAA's individual blocking rankings, as well as third place in the Pac-12. Also last season, Danielle Killpack was 28th in the country and fourth in the conference.

On the recruiting front, Doyon was instrumental in bringing in the 2011 freshman class that ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com.

Doyon was the assistant director of Terry Pettit's Summit of Extraordinary Coaching, where he assisted in developing and hosting a seminar for college coaches. Doyon also assisted Colorado State's Elite Skills, Team, and Collegiate Prep camps.

Doyon also served a two-year term as the head coach of the Avalanche Volleyball Club in Edwards, Colo., from 2002 to 2004. He also was an evaluator at the USA High Performance Tryout in Denver, Colo., in 2005.

Doyon's collegiate playing career was with the Syracuse club volleyball team in 1993 and 1994, where he was a two-year starting middle blocker. He graduated from SUNY Environmental Science and Forestry in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in Landscape Architecture and began his coaching career as an assistant at Fayetteville Manlius High School in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993.

JJ Riley
Assistant Coach
Second Season

JJ Riley is in his second season as a member of the Utah coaching staff after joining the Utes in January of 2012.

Riley brings an extensive and diverse volleyball background to the Utah coaching staff on both the collegiate and club levels as well as on both the men's and women's side of the game. He was in his second season as an assistant coach with the USC men's volleyball team and has coached for the men's and women's teams at Pepperdine.

Riley has coached in two NCAA Final Fours between the two programs, including last season with the Trojans, and he also played in the NCAA national championship match as a setter for the Pepperdine Waves.

He has also been successful on the club level, as he coached the Southern California Volleyball Club 16 boy's team and led the squad to a bronze medal at the 2011 Junior Olympics.

Before USC, Riley was an assistant with the Pepperdine women's team for four years (2000-03) and helped the Waves reach the NCAA Regional Final for the first time in school history.

Riley also served as an assistant coach for two seasons with the Pepperdine men's team in 2000 and 2010. In 2000, he helped the Waves advance to the NCAA Final Four, while the 2010 team finished among the nation's leaders in four different statistical categories: third in hitting percentage and assists, fifth in kills-per-set average and sixth in block average. Riley mentored First-Team All-American setter Kasey Crider, who led the nation in assists that season.

Daniel Jones
Director of Operations
Fourth Season

Daniel Jones will be in his third season on the Ute staff and his first as the Director of Volleyball Operations. During the 2010 and 2011 seasons, Jones served as the program's Video and Statistics Coordinator. In May of 2011, Jones served as a second assistant coach and technical adviser for the USA A2 Development Program at the USA Open Nationals in Dallas.

Prior to his appointment at Utah, Jones volunteered at Utah Valley during the 2009 season.

Jones coached Gold Medal Squared Camps across the country during the summer months for four years and spent the winters playing and coaching in London, England.

Jones graduated from the University of Canterbury with a Bachelor of Education degree, specializing in Physical Education. He married his wife, Lacee (Koeliker), last summer. She is an assistant coach at Utah Valley University.

2012 Review

The Utah volleyball team concluded its second Pac-12 Conference season in 2012 with a 14-19 overall record and a 5-15 mark, good for ninth place in the most competitive volleyball league in the country.

Utes In the NCAA Blocking Ranks: Utah finished sixth in the NCAA and second in the Pac-12's latest statistical rankings with a 3.00 block-per-set average as a team. Including league-games only, Utah improved to second in the league with 2.94 blocks per set during Pac-12 matches.

Chelsey Doubles Up: Schofield was Utah's top attacker in 2012 with a team-high average of 3.19 kills per set and has also chipped in 2.36 digs per set for the Ute defense.

Schofield led Utah with 3.19 kills per set this season and was third on the squad with 2.39 digs per set. Her 1,147 attempts are the 10th-most in a single season in school history.

Reaching Redd-Brandon: Redd-Brandon turned in a .349 hitting percentage this season, the fifth-highest mark for a single season in school history and is currently hitting .324 over her career, which would land her third on the school's career list.

Redd-Brandon is already ninth in school history with 368 block assists and needs just four more to pass Teresa McCabe (371 from 1991-94) for seventh. Redd-Brandon owns 391 career total blocks and needs just six more to overtake Karolina Bartkowiak (396 from 2007-10) for 10th place in the school record book. The Spanish Fork, Utah native needs just nine more total blocks to become the 10th member of Utah's 400-block club.

Redd has totaled 820 career kills and needs 180 more to become the 14th member of Utah's 1,000-kill club. Redd set a new school five-set match record with 13 block assists on Aug. 24 at Utah State.

Bailey Balling: Bateman finished ninth in blocking in the NCAA's statistical rankings and was second in the Pac-12 statistics with an average 1.53 blocks per set overall.

In league matches, Bateman ranked second in the conference with a 1.52 block-per-set average.

With 182 block assists last season, Bateman turned in the third-highest single-season total in school history. Bateman took over fifth on Utah's single-season total blocks chart with 188.

Miss 1,000: Odale is currently 13th in school history with 1,020 career kills and is already seventh in the Utah record book with 3,141 attempts.

Odale also has 96 career aces and needs just four more to become the 14th member of the school's 100-ace club.

The Star, Idaho native led the team and was second in the Pac-12 with 0.33 aces per set and was third in the league with 0.33 service aces per set during conference matches.

Shelby Does It All: Dalton finished third on the team with 1.06 blocks per set in all matches to go with a .254 hitting percentage and 1.78 kills per set.

In the latest Pac-12 statistical rankings, Dalton was 10th in the conference with a 1.14 block-per-set average in league play.

All Alli: Spurrier came on strong late this season, averaging 1.49 kills per set with a .295 hitting percentage in Utah's last 10 matches.

Spurrier set a new career-high mark with nine kills in both matches at Arizona State and Arizona.

Spurrier registered 2.25 kills with a total of 18 kills on 41 swings with just three errors for a .366 hitting percentage against the Sun Devils and Wildcats.

Lea at Libero: Adolph averaged 3.19 digs and 0.17 service aces per set over Utah's last eight matches, all starts.

Adolph reached double-figures in digs in each of the Utes' last eight matches.

Adolph has surpassed the 10-dig mark 14 times in 2012 and 18 times during her career.

Adolph turned in a career high of 20 digs against Washington on Nov. 4. She tied her career high by serving three aces at Utah State on Aug. 24.

The Set Up: McKenzie Odale and Cygan virtually split the setting duties this season.

After the match at BYU on Sept. 7, Cygan averaged 5.96 assists per set, while Odale turned in 4.82 assists per set.

Cygan started each of Utah's last 23 matches and put up 5.99 assists, 1.54 digs and 0.16 service aces per set during that stretch and owned a 5.70 assist-per-set clip for the year.

Can You Dig It?: The Utes were 10-1 when recording more digs than their opponents last season. Conversely, Utah went 4-18 when at a disadvantage in digs.

Efficiency Wins: Utah turned in a higher hitting percentage than its opponents 18 times this season, including in 12 of its 14 victories.

Utah was 14-4 overall when running a more efficient offense than its foes. On the other hand, the Utes were 0-15 when failing to outhit their opponents.

Utah State Invitational Champions: Utah started its season 4-0 for the first time since 2009 by defeating Southern Utah, host Utah State, Weber State and Portland on Aug. 24-25 at the USU Invitational in Logan, Utah.
